Dear Customer,

Import parcel invoice and information: Parcel reference number:

You have been sent a parcel from overseas. Delivery of this parcel to you is subject to payment of Customs charges as detailed below raised on behalf of HM Revenue & Customs.

These charges are:

Customs Duty	£0.00
Excise Duty	£0.00
Import VAT	£36.74
Other	£0.00
Clearance Fee (zero rated for VAT)	£12.00
Total	£48.74

So we can deliver your parcel as quickly as possible to you, the easiest way is to go online to arrange payment of these Customs charges:

D Online at www.parcelforce.com. Click on 'Receiving'; you'll need this letter and a credit / debit card

If you pay online, delivery is usually made the next working day after payment is processed. You can choose to have your parcel delivered on a Saturday for an additional fee of £12.00 (Zero-rated for VAT purposes); this would be added to your total when paying. We will hold your parcel for 20 days after the date of this letter, after which your parcel will be returned to the sender.

Parcelforce Worldwide are unable to enter into disputes regarding Customs charges. Parcels, on which customs charges have not been paid, cannot be delivered and will be returned to sender after the time stated above. If you have a query or request for a refund please see the information overleaf.

For information on why charges have been applied to your parcel, please see overleaf. If you have a specific enquiry regarding the Clearance Fee please contact the Parcelforce Worldwide depot above.

Yours faithfully
